

Preparing To Stand Out

When preparing your job application and for an interview there are several strategies for success and things to do that will help you stand out from the other applicants:

- On your application position your accomplishments using the STAR (Situation or Task, Action, Result) technique
- Prepare your opening pitch for the interview, do background research on the company - it is a good idea to create a check list of things to do and remember
- Think about the questions that you may be asked or that you may want to ask
