

Golf Course Jobs Saskatchewan

So you've decided that you want to work in the golf industry, and the possibilities are endless. Golf is BIG business in Saskatchewan. Did you know there are over 31,000 golf courses in the world, over 2100 courses in Canada and more than 250 in Saskatchewan alone? Not to mention there are thousands of golf-affiliated businesses including manufacturers, golf schools, hotels and resorts. If you have a true passion for golf, there is bound to be a great job just waiting for you in the golf industry, and clubjobs.ca is going to help you find it... or better yet, help IT find YOU!

clubjobs.ca is the premium career resource is for you &ndash; through the site you will have the opportunity to gain access to the jobs that most people are never lucky enough to see. We connect you with an unlimited number of golf employers searching for someone like you. There are virtually unlimited opportunities and potential for motivated, passionate candidates with an education and a commitment to success.

How it works - clubjobs.ca is Free to use & available 24/7. &ldquo;Let your fingers do the walking&rdquo;. Convenient on-line use allows you to gain access to golf jobs anywhere anytime. Take the guesswork out of the hiring process. clubjobs.ca is a complete recruitment and human resources center for the golf industry. Opportunities are posted on-line with complete job description and expectations. You can Set yourself apart from the pack & show them the unique you. We start the evaluation process immediately through a series of on-line assessments and questions. This allows us to draw out best practices, attitudes and behaviors that help us bring together employers with potential employees. If you are looking for a place to combine your passion with your paycheck then clubjobs.ca is the place for you. The service is for all staff opportunities, not just the senior members and golf pros. It incorporates the entire golf community. Do you understand and value the different components involved in the business of golf? Then put your best foot forward and let clubjobs.ca lead you forward on your career path.

Saskatchewan &ndash; Located in the heart of North America, the province of Saskatchewan is the middle of 3 provinces that make up the Canadian prairies. Saskatchewan is golf crazy, according to Tourism Saskatchewan. A recent study by the National Golf Foundation showed that one-quarter of the population, 12 years and older, played five or more rounds of golf a year, the highest percentage in North America. A July 1999 Omnibus survey done by the City of Regina found that 37.5 per cent of Regina's population makes use of the city golf courses. In fact, per capita, the province has more golf courses (over 250) than any other place in the world.

Click here for your opportunity to turn you dreams into reality.